

two days. A private dispatch received last night concludes with this significant sentence:

"Within two weeks you may expect great events."

The Siberian Railroad, which is being worked to its full capacity by military traffic, is about to have a further burden imposed upon it, namely, that of feeding the resident non-combatant population. The stocks of provisions in Irkutsk and other towns in Siberia were not as large as usual at the beginning of the winter and are being run low. The government has been informed that the stocks must be imported by the railroad or that the towns will be faced with famine within a fortnight. This will necessitate some delay in the forwarding of military supplies, which are sorely needed at the present moment.

Kuropatkin's Dispatch.

A dispatch from General Kuropatkin, dated March 1st, says:

"On a third attack on the Russian detachment near Chubenevka, the Japanese charged with the bayonet and succeeded in occupying the central heights, forcing the Russian advance guard to retire to the neighboring crest."

"The Russians at 9 o'clock at night, February 28th, were still holding a position near Kondash against the Japanese attack."

"The Japanese made a fresh attack on the Gauto Pass position at 3 o'clock in the morning of March 1st. After repulsing several assaults, the Russians were forced to abandon two outposts which had been demolished by the Japanese artillery."

General Kuropatkin adds that several Japanese attacks on Manchuria on the Shalhe River on the morning of March 1st were repulsed and says the bombardment of Poutoufou and Novogorod hills was continued throughout March 1st. The losses were insignificant.

CAPTURE VILLAGES.

Japanese Infantry Creep Forward From Hills and Seize Three Positions.

(By Associated Press.)

GENERAL KUROPATKIN'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD (Via Pusan), March 2.—During the night the Japanese infantry crept forward from the hills and took three small villages in front of Walto Mountain, on the plain close to the river, which has been the scene of many outpost affairs.

One column advanced northeast and captured the town of Kodaias, fifteen miles from Walto Mountain. The engagement there was not severe.

The artillery duel is continuing in the east and is most active about Walto, but the commanding is neither as heavy nor as intense as it was on the westward. The batteries of both armies have maintained their positions and are exchanging volleys of shrapnel across the villages.

One village, which the Japanese occupied, was subjected to a fierce bombardment of solid shots, but the two companies there stuck to their positions.

RAID ON SINMINTIN.

Possible That Japanese May Seize Headquarters of Contraband Trade.

NEW CHIWANG, March 2, Via TIEN TSIN, March 2.—A detachment of four hundred Japanese cavalry with one gun, raided Sinmintin, thirty miles west of Mukden (his afternoon). With the gun trained on the main street, the troops ransacked the railroad buildings and Chinese lines.

For months Sinmintin has been the headquarters of contraband trade and the Japanese heretofore have not interfered with it. On the completion of their examination of Sinmintin the Japanese withdrew to Pauchiatun. An engagement is expected as it is known that the Chinese are not far distant.

It is possible that the Japanese may seize Sinmintin as it has long been devalued, owing to Russian traffic there. There are large accumulations of stores at Chenev and March 2.

The Japanese hold all the roads.

ATTACKS REPULSED.

But Forces Defending Russian Left Were Unable to Withstand Jap. Advance.

(By Associated Press.)

HEADQUARTERS OF GEN. RENNEN-KAMPE, near MADIADANI, MANCHURIA, Feb. 28, Via MUKDEN, March 2.—The Japanese attacks to-day on the new Russian positions a few miles north of Chubenevka were successfully repulsed but the forces defending the Russian flank were unable to withstand the advance of the Japanese, who enveloped the front and left.

The village of Kudyak north of Hamanda Pass a few miles east of the highway, was captured by the Japanese during the afternoon. The division of Madiadani is seriously threatened.

Is Ninety Years Old To-Day.

Mr. Joseph C. Haley is ninety years of age to-day, and in honor of the occasion, his granddaughter, Mrs. T. J. Tangle, of No. 112 North Twentieth Street, will give a reception in his honor.

Mr. Haley is in excellent health of body and mind, and reads the Times-Dispatch every day with much pleasure and profit. He was born in this city, but has been an extensive traveler, having in his early life driven and made many trips by road to St. Louis, Illinois, Alabama and California.

Norfolk Lawyers Here.

Colonel George C. Cabell, Jr., and his law partner, Hon. John N. Seabrook, of Norfolk, are in the city, having come to Richmond to argue a case before the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. Colonel Cabell when asked yesterday as to the political situation in Norfolk, would make no statement at this early stage as to the relative strength of the aspirants for the principal office, saying that the subject had not yet been generally considered. The colonel is at the Commonwealth Club.

City Buys a Swan.

The Committee on Grounds and Buildings last night, upon the recommendation of Colonel W. B. Cuthbert, City Engineer, decided to buy a swan for the Reservoir lake. The swan is owned by a Kentuckian, and the price asked is $10. The bird will be shipped here shortly.

Negro Badly Cut.

Dr. Leonard in charge of the city ambulance was called to Brook Road, where a negro named C. J. Luckie, who was badly cut by some unknown party, was taken to the hospital. He was treated and left. Whoever did the cutting made his escape.

Cemeteries Committee.

The Committee on Cemeteries met last night, but the only business disposed of was of a routine nature.

Hold Annual Banquet.

The Union Social Club of Fulton held the regular meeting Tuesday night and re-elected all the old officers for the ensuing term. Considerable other business was transacted. The banquet for the coming year is set for Tuesday night, and a large attendance of the members is expected. The organization is in a flourishing condition and is growing in membership.

Revenue Collections.

Collections of internal-revenue for the Second District of Virginia were slightly below the average, but considering the short month and the holiday, the figures are about up to the standard. Here is the report, furnished by Deputy Collector Robert McDonald: On tobacco, $2,457.00; on spirits, $2,600.75; on beer, $2,250.00; on cigars and cigarettes, $7,732.00; on total, $6,439.75; on special taxes, $400.75. Total collections, $11,122.50.

Took in Many Thousands.

The sale of stamps and stamped paper at the Richmond postoffice during the month of February aggregated $31,400.74, an increase of about 10 per cent. over the same month of the previous year. The rural carriers throughout the State are paid from the Richmond office and make regular trips. The aggregate of 1 out salaries for the month to rural carriers was about forty thousand dollars, or nearly half a million per year.

How It Goes in Grayson.

Mr. J. S. Bourne, of Grayson, a member of the bar of that county, was in the city yesterday. He is an enthusiastic supporter of Mr. Swanson for Governor, and to friends in the city he said that the only Virginia man would carry Grayson overwhelmingly. Governor Montague has a number of friends in Grayson, but Mr. Martin is regarded as the stronger there.

Richmond Men Subpoenaed.

Several Richmond and Manchester gentlemen have been subpoenaed by the United States Court to appear before Judge R. R. Phipps, in the case of A. J. Bradley vs. the New Century Cotton Mills, a case now pending before the United States Court for the Northern District of Georgia.

First Brigade, Second Brigade, Third Brigade.

Third Division, J. W. Lyons, not brigaded.

Parade Ceremonies.

The parade ceremonies of the day are: II. Procession of the President from the White House to the Capitol at 9:30 A. M.

IV. Afternoon assembly of the military and civic grand divisions.

V. Escort of the President from the Capitol to the White House at the conclusion of his inaugural address, at about 12:00 o'clock P. M.

VI. Review of the military and civic grand divisions by the President from the latter's stand in front of the White House at 2:45 P. M.

The general orders prescribe at length the order of formation of the parade and prescribe that no organization, military or civic, will execute any change of formation or perform any exhibition movements during the entire march.

Drum majors will use their batons or staffs only as prescribed in drill regulations and will not throw them in the air.

The Fifth Band, Artillery Corps, U. S. A., whose position is at the head of the column, is the only band which will play "Hail to the Chief" at any time.

Governors of States and commanders of divisions and brigades are forbidden to leave the line and go on grand stands.

The parade will be reviewed by the President in front of the White House and by the grand marshal on Vermont Avenue and K Street.

IS TOO POOR TO RECORD OF HER HOUSEHOLD

Suit Against Vanderbilt's Cousin Hinges on This Condition.

FAMOUS CASE OF BREESE

Plaintiff in Error Once President of Nashville Bank.

In the United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday, Judges Goff, Fritchard and McDowell sitting, two cases were argued and submitted. The court is disposing of the docket with as much expedition as practicable, and it is now expected that it will adjourn for the term next Tuesday or Wednesday.

In the case of J. Edwards, plaintiff in error, vs. Charles McNamee, defendant in error, from the Circuit Court of the United States at Asheville, argument was heard on the motion to dismiss on account of failure to print the record. The plaintiff in error was alleged to have been badly injured while at work for George W. Vanderbilt on his Biltmore estate, of which McNamee had charge. He lost his suit in the lower court and appealed to this court, but pleaded poverty as a reason for not printing the record. Charles A. Moore, of Asheville, appeared for the plaintiff in error, and James H. Merrimon for the defendant in error, and submitted.

The other case argued was from North Carolina also. It was the now famous case of William L. Breese, plaintiff in error, vs. the United States defendant in error, an appeal from the Circuit Court of the United States at Charlotte. Breese was formerly president of the now defunct First National Bank of Asheville, and was indicted for misappropriation of the funds of the bank. The trial from this appeal was granted was the fifth trial of the case, and resulted in a verdict of guilty and five years. Once before Breese was convicted and given ten years, but the lower court was reversed. Judge E. F. Keller, of Asheville, presided at the last trial. The case was argued yesterday for Breese by Charles A. Moore, of Asheville, and for the government by Hon. A. B. Hollon, District Attorney, who secured a conviction at the prosecution of the case.

HIGH SCHOOL BOOKS.

State Board of Education Completes Preparation of Lists.

The State Board of Education reconvened yesterday at the office of the Department of Public Instruction and completed the work of preparing a list of the books to be used in the high schools. The books added to the list by the State Board in addition to those stated yesterday included Williams' Commercial Arithmetic, Lewis' Elementary Latin Dictionary, a course in general history, in English history and in United States history.

The board concluded the consideration of the report of the State superintendent in the case of the city of Radford, against whom charges had been filed by the principal, J. W. G. terming the superintendent's report as "a disgrace to the school."

The board adjourned to meet in this city March 1st, when the consideration of the report of the committee on consolidation of school divisions will be taken up and concluded. The board will then will reconsider and complete this report.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Will Be Composed of Six or Eight Clubs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, Va., March 2.—Edw. J. Ransick, of Chincoteague, Ohio, who has been in the city this past week in connection with the formation of a Virginia baseball league, stated to-night that the league is now practically assured. A meeting to perfect arrangements will be held in Richmond next week. The league will be composed of six or eight clubs. Ransick, Lynchburg, Danville, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Portsmouth and Newport News will compose the eight-city circuit; the last two places to be dropped if the six-city plan is adopted.

PLAINTIFF RESTS.

Defendants to Take Testimony in Busby Case To-day.

Good progress is being made in the examination of the witnesses in the Busby case now on trial in the Law and Equity Court, and it is possible that it may be concluded this week.

Counsel for the plaintiff completed the examination of their witnesses, and rested their case yesterday evening.

Mr. Smith cross-examined Mr. A. L. Lucas as severely as he did the previous morning, and it is likely that Mr. Luther Dawson will be the first witness.

The case progressed harmoniously this time and there has been but little sharp cross-firing between attorneys.

Hold Annual Banquet.
